

Standards:

8.2.3 Identify the major biomes of the world.

8.3.1 Analyze characteristics and properties of two- and three-dimensional geometric figures.

“Think-Tac-Toe” – Science and Math
Compare and contrast Use Kidspiration or Inspiration to create a graphic organizer that compares and contrasts two biomes or two shapes. If a computer is not available, you may use one of the printed copies at your station.	Written Document Analysis Analyze the provided primary source document using the Document Analysis Worksheet.	Read-a-Picture Use the provided questions to analyze an historic photograph.
Kinesthetic Testing Tactics Use the provided words to write sentences showing relationships of the cards.	A Wrinkle in Time Use the Timeliner software to create a timeline of the seasons of a biome or the life of Pythagoras.	Walk a mile in my footsteps Create footprints to represent a biome or a particular shape.
Jeopardy using PowerPoint Use a Microsoft PowerPoint template to create a Jeopardy type game.	Create a Brochure Math – Create a career brochure Science – Create a travel brochure	Make Your Case Use a Microsoft Word template to create a CD Jewel Case Label relating to a selected biome or shape. Include a band name, song titles and productions notes.